

RNED TO DEATH IN FIRE AT ORANGE TODAY

Body Found Near Door Showing
Superhuman Effort of Paralytic to Save Herself

ORANGE, Jan. 2.—Shortly before noon today Mrs. T. D. Henderson was burned to death. The remains, burned to a crisp, were found near the door of the house, which was burned, showing that the paralyzed woman had struggled desperately to get out of the flames.

The house stood on North Center street just north of the library. Mr. Henderson, a carpenter, was away at work. Just before noon neighbors saw flame and smoke pouring from the doors and windows. Many people, including the firemen, rushed to the place. Neighbors turned on a stream of water and put out the fire. The house was gutted.

It is thought gasoline exploded and caused the fire. Mrs. Henderson was in an upholstered chair, and that she attempted to get away from the flames is proved by the fact that her body was found two feet from the doorway. By superhuman effort, paralyzed though she was from the waist down, she managed to draw herself that close to safety, and there perished. Chas. Heim has charge of the body until the coroner arrives. Mrs. Henderson was the mother of Mrs. Earl Camp.

GOOD WORDS FOR
BEET SUGAR MAN

National Farmer of Bay City, Mich., Regrets Loss of
Mr. F. B. Case

The National Farmer, of Bay City, Mich., in its last issue, has the following to say regarding Mr. F. B. Case, the gentleman who is coming to Santa Ana to assume the management of the Southern California Sugar Company's business:

"The Michigan beet sugar industry loses a valuable citizen in the person of F. B. Case, who retires from the management of the St. Louis Sugar Company to become interested in a sugar factory at Santa Ana, Cal. Mr. Case has been a constant friend of the industry and has done much for its advancement. Under his careful guidance the St. Louis Sugar Company has prospered and has become thoroughly established. The farmers of Gratiot county and the members of the Gratiot Sugar Company will wish Mr. Case the best of success in his new home, where he, in company with others, will take up the management of a sugar company on a large scale. The National Farmer regrets his departure from Michigan, but we bespeak for him unlimited success in his new field. In private life and in business, the people of Santa Ana, Cal., will find Mr. Case a pleasing gentleman and a high class business man."

AUSTRIA AND SERVIA FIGHT

Open Conflict Expected to Follow
Guerrilla War on Montenegrin Frontier

BELGRADE, Jan. 2.—As the result of a serious clash between Serbian and Austrian troops in the mountain fastnesses of Montenegro, the Austrian outposts are said to have been driven back with heavy losses. Details of the clash are meager, but it is announced that the Austrian government has ordered reinforcements sent to the frontier.

It is feared here that the conflict may bring about open warfare between the two governments, as the clash follows frequent small encounters which have taken place along the frontier since spring, when the two nations were on the verge of war.

The Russian foreign office is said to be eagerly awaiting news, as it is believed that Russia will side with Serbia in case of war, fearing aggressive movements on the part of Austria to drive Russia from Southeastern Europe.

REFORMERS
ARE IN FEAR

That Anti Race Track Gambling Bill Will be Heavily Handicapped

Stanton Confident That Speakership is Already in His Pocket

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 2.—Reformers in the legislature are dreading today that the anti-race track bill may be fortified by so many puritanical measures that nobody will have the temerity to support it seriously. They fear the "sport of kings" may craftily transform the measure so as to assure its defeat.

Stanton is Confident
Assemblyman Stanton of Los Angeles arrived early on the scene at the capitol with enough pledges in his pocket to make him confident he will be elected speaker of the lower house on the first ballot. He claims he will have forty votes in the Republican caucus. Thirty-one would be enough to give him the caucus nomination and means everything over but the shouting. Beardslee of Stockton is nominally in the fight but will probably withdraw at the final test. Stanton is so confident he has already decided to give his friend and faithful aide, "Jake" Transue, the coveted chairmanship of the ways and means committee.

GAVE NOTICE TO USERS OF ARTESIAN
WATER

Every Gun Club in the County
Sent Warning by District Attorney

CALLS ATTENTION TO THE STATE LAW

Must Conform to Requirements or Office Will Take Action

District Attorney S. M. Davis today mailed notice to every gun club with a preserve in Orange county that the law prohibiting the waste of artesian water would be enforced. Notices were also mailed to other users of artesian water.

The notice mailed out follows: "Dear Sir:—Complaint has been made at this office that you are permitting the artesian well on your property in this county to run water contrary to law.

"I call your attention to Chapter 101 of the Statutes of California for 1907, being an act to prevent the waste and flow of water from artesian wells.

"Section 1, of that act, provides as follows:

"Any artesian well which is not capped, equipped or furnished with such mechanical appliance as will readily and effectively arrest and prevent the flow of any water from such well, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance. The owner, tenant, or occupant of the land upon which such well is situated, who causes, permits or suffers such public nuisance, or suffers or permits it to remain or continue, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and any person owning, possessing or occupying any land upon which is situated an artesian well, who causes, suffers or permits the water to unnecessarily flow from such well, or to go to waste, is guilty of a misdemeanor."

"Section 3 of said act provides in part as follows:

"The use of any water flowing from an artesian well for the irrigation of land, whenever over ten percent of the water received on such land for irrigation is allowed to escape therefrom, is also hereby declared to be a waste within the meaning of this act."

"The law states that each day's continuance of such waste shall constitute a new offense, and any person violating the provisions of this act, for each offense, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than $25.00 and not more than $50.00, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

"I also call your attention to the recommendation in the report of the last grand jury of this county, as follows:

"We find an act of the legislature approved March 6, 1907, pertaining to the open flow of artesian wells is being disregarded. Several hundred wells are being allowed to flow in violation of this act. We found them especially numerous on the Gun Club lands. We urge that the honorable district attorney proceed without delay to the strict enforcement of this act, and thus save the county many dollars annually in road construction as well as conserving our water supply where most needed."

"I therefore call your attention to the law and suggest that all users of artesian water take steps to conform to the law in the use of such water upon their lands. In this way it is hoped that all injustice will be avoided and that every one will be given an opportunity to put himself in position to obey the law in regard to the use of artesian water.

"You are hereby given notice that in case you do not conform to the requirements of the law in regard to the use of such water it will be the duty of this office to take such action as will result in the proper enforcement of the law.

"Respectfully,
S. M. DAVIS,
District Attorney of Orange County."

OFF SANTA BARBARA

They struck a school of barracuda between here and Ventura, about 10 o'clock at night, and all worked steadily until daybreak. There were almost three tons of the fish. They receive 3 cents a pound from the dealers, so that their night's work will net them about $175.

SEEMS TO BE UP
TO LIEUTENANT
JOHN SELINGER

Unless Company E Elects Captain
Thursday it Will be Mustered Out

Orange County Plain Dealer, Anaheim: There was a meeting of members of Company E and citizens at Armory hall Wednesday evening, called for the purpose of discussing the matter of choosing a captain for the company. Speeches were made appropriate to the occasion, by J. S. Howard, Eugene Adams, J. J. Ahlborn and others. Mr. Ahlborn, who has been solicited by members of the company and other citizens to take the captaincy, has been compelled to refuse the honor owing to stress of business. Second Lieutenant John Selinger, a popular and capable officer of the company, has also been urged to take the position, but has declined for various reasons. In spite of his past refusals Selinger (who was not present) was unanimously nominated for the captaincy by those present at the meeting. A committee was appointed to notify Mr. Selinger of the meeting's action and every effort will be made to induce Mr. Selinger to accept the position. Election for captain occurs on Thursday evening of next week, and unless the position is filled, the company will be mustered out.

VOICES HEARD FROM RUINS BETRAYS LIFE

MESSINA, Jan. 2.—Rescuers today tracing the sound of a voice, discovered the Marquis Samela alive in the cellar of his castle, shut beneath tons of debris.

"I have food enough to last several days," shouted the Marquis. "It is dark but my eyes are becoming accustomed to it. Turn your attention to others in more imminent danger."

He inquired the extent of the damage of the earthquake and wept bitterly when told of the widespread destruction. He had thought his castle the only building badly damaged.

THREE MEXICANS IN JAIL HERE
ADMIT STEALING TWO HORSES

Three confessed horse thieves are in the county jail ready to plead guilty and take their sentence. Three others are in the Los Angeles jail. Anastacio Juarez, Ceracio Torenas and Jose Valles, in jail here, admit stealing the horse of T. O. Timmons of Brookhurst and the horse of M. Witt of West Orange. The three men in the Los Angeles jail are held for stealing three mares from J. L. Vignes of the Cerritos ranch near Long Beach.

These six men were caught in San Diego county as they were attempting to get across the line with eight horses, two buggies, several saddles and a lot of harness. Three of the Mexicans were arrested in El Cajon, another in Chollas Valley and another in San Diego. In each instance officers got the drop on the desperadoes, all of whom were armed. San Diego officers believe they captured a dangerous lot of men who have operated all over the state, and it is thought that several of the gang are still at large.

Bringing Them Back
City Marshal Ruddock of Fullerton went to San Diego and brought the three Mexicans who stole Timmons'

The Queen was in a partly demolished building used as a temporary hospital when the ground began to tremble. Panic stricken, many wounded men and women sprang from their pallets on the floor and started for the doors. The Queen ordered them back to their cots but in the din her voice was unheard. The frenzied patients thrust the Queen aside and in the melee ensuing she was trampled on. Guards sprang to her aid but she refused to leave the building.

Three thousand wounded refugees were sent to inland towns today besides those taken away in ships.

No Second Tidal Wave
ROME, Jan. 2.—It was learned positively today that the report of a second tidal wave in the strait of Messina yesterday was untrue.

RESCUERS DIVIDE
ALL WITH VICTIMS

ROME, Jan. 2.—Hundreds of rescuers have fallen among the victims of the earthquake and wave at Messina and Reggio. Continued labor, lack of food and the impossibility of sleep, have driven the rescuers into almost the same state of incipient insanity in which they find the survivors of the catastrophe. The rescuers have given up their clothing to the survivors, until many are almost naked. It is difficult to tell the rescuers from the rescued. Many have been killed or crushed in their heroic efforts to save people from tottering buildings.

There is not a house in either city that will be habitable again. The Queen is on the verge of prostration but refuses to leave Messina. It is feared she will collapse, and the cabinet is considering the advisability of demanding her return to Rome.

The King wired this afternoon to the premier: "Visited Cannietello and found it razed. The fires in Reggio and Messina have been reduced to a small proportion." Cannietello is a small city eight miles north of Reggio. There is no hope any further for any of the towns along the strait. As soon as the living can be removed from the ruins of Messina and Reggio, the remaining houses will be leveled by a bombardment from the fleet. As there is no possibility of any of the buildings being reconstructed, it is deemed best to raze the tottering walls of both cities.

There is much fighting over food, and there is one report that six soldiers were killed near Palmi, who robbed supplies.

POPE DIRECTS ARCHBISHOP IRELAND TO SEARCH FOR MISSING AMERICANS

ROME, Jan. 2.—The church authorities have reported to the pope the fear that a number of Americans are in the ruins in Messina. The pope has expressed the wish that Archbishop Ireland, now in Europe, would visit the scene, and it is probable that Bishop Ireland will start immediately for the scene of destruction. The Vatican gardens have been transformed into open air hospitals for wounded refugees.

and Witt's horses back with him. Timmons, who went to San Diego to identify his horse, is driving the entire capture back this way. Three unidentified saddles and harness and two buggies are in the lot. The big Long Beach mares, unshod and unused to the road, are hardly able to walk, so close worn are their hoofs. One saddle horse goes to Santa Barbara and a pony to Ventura.

The three men held here say they had nothing to do with any of the stealing except the Timmons and Witt animals. This morning they were taken before Justice of the Peace Ford at Fullerton, and their preliminary examinations were set for next Thursday. Each man's bond was fixed at $2000.

Thomas' Horse Gone

Officers believe members of this gang stole Frank Thomas' horse, buggy and harness from Fourth street near Lutz & Company's store on Thursday night. Thomas tied there early in the evening and before 8 o'clock the outfit was gone. The horse is a stylish built, 4-year-old bay, without a white hair on his body. The buggy was hand-made. The outfit was worth $350. No trace of it has been found.

An Extraordinary Offer

THE GREATEST EVER MADE BY ANY NEWSPAPER

Three Great National Magazines

ABSOLUTELY FREE

For Old and New Subscribers

BUSINESS men advertise—frequently they make tremendous sacrifices to attract new customers. We believe in this policy, and practice what we preach by doing something each year to attract new subscribers and to favor our old readers who are entitled to an occasional good thing.

After pending several months in search of a premium, we finally decided we could not offer a better or more useful or attractive premium than a combination of high-class home magazines, and chose "World's Events," "Home Herald" and "Vick's Magazine" on account of their high character and literary quality.

We do not hesitate to say that we regard our offer this year to be the most extraordinary ever offered by any newspaper in this vicinity. We offer these three magazines in connection with a new or renewal subscription to our own paper on such favorable terms that we do not see how it is possible for a single reader not to take advantage of it. We want you to read every word of this announcement. Read the description below of the three magazines. Read the terms of our offer and accept at once.

Home Herald

"A PAPER WITH A PURPOSE"

The Home Herald is an independent family weekly of twenty pages, fully illustrated. It is one of the most reliable, popular and influential publications in existence. Its fearless editorial treatment of current events and its feature articles by men prominent in public life make the Home Herald indispensable to those who desire to keep in touch with public opinion affecting great issues and problems in the home.

Dr. Pierce's Health Talks

The miracle of motherhood is often overshadowed by the misery of motherhood. The great functional changes which are incident to child-bearing leave their mark for life on many a mother. Some women offer up their lives as a sacrifice on the altar of motherhood. A far greater number live on in ceaseless misery. Their strength fails, their beauty fades, they have no ambition and no enjoyment in life. To every woman

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Offers escape from the pains and perils of motherhood. Taken during the period of waiting and anticipation this medicine strengthens the body, nourishes the nerves, and prepares the whole womanly system for the coming of baby. It also insures an abundant supply of nourishment for the child.

The mind feels bright and buoyant. There is no anxiety, no dread, but in its place a happy anticipation of the baby's coming, which counts for the future happiness of the child unborn. The use of "Favorite Prescription" makes the baby's advent easy, and gives abundant vitality to nursing mothers.

There is no alcohol or habit-forming drugs in "Favorite Prescription." It is a purely vegetable medicine.

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." There is nothing "just as good" for weak and sickly women. All its ingredients printed on its bottle-wrapper.

The larger success of doctor or druggist is never won by putting love for the dollar above duty to the sick. Protecting the sick, giving them what they ask for when Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is called for, will enrich him in respect, if it does not swell to the utmost his profits.

GAME WAS WON BY THE HOME PLAYERS

The football game played yesterday afternoon at the new Y. M. C. A. grounds, between the Arrowhead team and the Orange second team proved a victory for Orange. The score stood 6 to 0 in favor of Orange at the finish. It was a good game from first to last. The touchdown was made near the end of the second half by Carpenter. A large and enthusiastic crowd attended the game and surely their interest and enthusiasm was great if cheers that resounded for three-quarters of a mile in all directions mean anything.

LADIES PROVED TO BE ROYAL ENTERTAINERS

The Ladies Circle of Olive gave a very successful Leap Year ball at the Eagle hall at Olive Thursday night. About forty couples, among whom were visitors from Olinda, Anaheim, Santa Ana, Villa Park and Orange, danced the old year out and the new year in, and all report having had a jolly good time.

The Circle and Eagle club of Olive rival each other as entertainers and the ladies were determined to outdo everything previously attempted. The hall was converted into a bower of beauty, the Circle colors, red and green, being carried out in tasteful decorations of palm leaves and wreaths of holly. The chandeliers were festooned with mistletoe and much merriment was caused by the jolly couples dodging from under its magic spell.

At 12 o'clock a delicious supper, prepared by the ladies of the Circle, was served at the hotel, after which the dance was put in charge of the Eagle Club, and it was with deepest regret that the merry party accepted the inevitable and danced the Home, Sweet Home waltz as the dawn was beginning to peep over the horizon. Not yet willing to part from the delightful music furnished by Mitchell's orchestra of Santa Ana, the dancers still clamored for more and Mr. Geopier favored them with the coronet solo, "Good Night, Ladies." With New Year greetings the happy throng departed for their homes, hoping that the Ladies Circle would not wait for another leap year to again favor their friends with an entertainment so enjoyable.

Just to Make Sure

To a bus conductor who was calling "Hangel and 'Ighate, Hangel and 'Ighate!" an old lady several times put the question, "Are you quite sure you go to the Angel?"

The man's answer came at last.

"Well, mum, it's writ all over the bus, and I've been callin' it for the last 'a'hour, so I believe we do; but I'll ask a policeman, if you like."—Tit-Bits.

TWO WERE TAKEN NEW YEARS EVE

Mrs. Sanders, for Many Years
a Resident of Orange
Is Dead

Mrs. Lydia L. Souders

The grim reaper was busy in Orange on the last night of the old year.

Mrs. Lydia L. Souders, who has lived here for many years passed away at 9:30 on Thursday evening. Her death, caused by pneumonia, was not unexpected, but nevertheless came as a shock to her daughter, Miss Henrietta, who is the only one of the family still surviving.

Mrs. Souders was born in Pennsylvania 77 years ago the first of last September and has had a life of large experience and much sorrow, but has borne through it all a consecrated Christian character which was an inspiration to those close about her. She lost three children within a very few weeks of each other, of diphtheria. She was the mother of eight children, only one of whom was left to her. Her husband and daughter came with her to California in search of health for Mrs. Souders some thirteen years ago. Her husband was then in splendid health but soon passed into a decline and died about seven years ago.

All the tenderest sympathy of her many friends goes out to Miss Henrietta in this sad hour of her loneliness and sorrow.

The funeral will be held in the M. E. church Sunday at 2 p. m. conducted by Rev. Loofburrow, Dr. E. L. Miller of Anaheim, a former pastor, and Rev. D. R. Collins of Orange, a dear friend. The body will be taken east to Vinton, Iowa, to be laid to rest by the side of her husband and children.

Miss Eva Reed

Miss Eva Arlene Reed passed from this earthly life on the night of the last day of the old year.

Miss Reed was born on Nov. 29, 1888, making her only 20 years and 1 month, at the time of her death. Only a few short years did she spend with her loving friends on this earth but in those years she made an impression of sweetness and goodness that will last as long as life itself with those whose privilege it was to be intimately connected with her. She came to California in 1905 with J. C. Wood and family hoping that this climate would improve her health, which was not of the best. She seemed much better up to a little more than a week ago, when she was taken down with what was pronounced peritonitis and grew steadily worse until released by death.

Miss Reed was a church member in her home in Iowa but had not yet united here, but was a regular attendant at the M. E. church of this place. The funeral was held this afternoon at the M. E. church, Rev. Loofburrow officiating.

Her father died several years ago. The heartfelt sympathy of all is extended to the sorrowing mother, brothers and sister.

HAPPY DAY FOR THE LOCAL FANS

Altizer by Wonderful Catch and Throw Wins a Home

"Happy New Year," was the greeting that was going the rounds at the Association Park yesterday afternoon after the locals had given the Salt Lakes a pill that was hard to swallow. The Yellow Sox came out of the struggle with the long end of the score in their possession. The final counting of the runs gave the locals a total of three against one for the Mormons.

Things began to look bad for the locals in the seventh when Pedrotti, the first man up, was given a free ticket to the initial sack. Corbin, the next man, placed a little bunt just out of Johnson's reach and landed safe at first, Pedrotti going to second. But here their good luck must end, as the next Mormon put up a weak one that was captured by Johnson, the next man was due to fanout, and the first thing that anybody knew, Pedrotti had been caught between the bases, and which retired the side.

Locals Score First Run

The first run came in the fourth inning and the Yellow Sox were the ones to get the long run. La Longe, the first, fell a victim to the umpire and was called out on strikes. Mott came through with a single to center field, but was forced out a moment later by Altizer, who retrieved by purloining the second sack. Meats, the heavy hitting catcher, was the next on the menu and he was good by giving the horsehide a terrific smash to left center that went for two sacks. Altizer coming across the rubber with the first run of the game; Johnson singled to left and Meats was nabbed at the plate in an endeavor to score.

Mormons Tie the Score

The Mormons tied the score in the sixth inning after a great mix up by the Yellow Sox. With two men out and a man on second, a wild heave by one of the lads in green and the ball went to the right field fence allowing Graham to score from second. This was the only Mormon who was able to get within scoring distance.

Locals Regain Lead

The Yellow Sox did not allow the score to stay tied very long, for they bunched their hits and put LaLonge across the rubber in their half of the sixth. Donovan, the first man, singled to left, but was forced out by La Longe, who did not lose any time in stealing his way to the second station. Mott flew out to center, Altizer singled to left field, La Longe scoring.

The locals scored again in the eighth, La Longe opening up with a single over third; Mott singled to right field but was caught at second, Altizer singled to center, La Longe scoring the third and last run for the locals.

Altizer's Great Throw

It happened in the eighth. In this inning Altizer made one of the greatest throws ever made on the local grounds. Altizer was playing a deep short and Graham hit one towards second that seemed impossible to get, but the new man was coming in fast and speared the ball stumbling. While in the air, Altizer threw to La Longe, making a perfect throw. Altizer won a home with the local fans by this and the fans showed their appreciation of the play by giving the short-stop a present of ten dollars.

Huntington Beach News: A two-horse team attached to a buggy, belonging to J. I. Clark who lives near the Ocean View school-house became frightened Sunday afternoon, while hitched on Main street. The horses ran away and never stopped until they reached home. In the four-mile run the only damage done was a broken single-tree.

What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription." The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous colitis), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections, it is often successful in effecting cures.

The "Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—those peculiar weaknesses, impairments and irregularities incident to womanhood. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nerve. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the breakdown, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of testimonials, each containing the formulae of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines. The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Doctor Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

JUDICIARY BOOMS

Southern California will insist upon naming one of the two judges of the supreme court two years hence.

At present Lucien Shaw is the only member of the court from south of Tehachapi. The south believes that it is entitled to at least two of the seven judges, and produces impressive figures to show the amount of court work coming from the southern end of the state. Then, too, the legal business of that section deals in large measure with matters that require special knowledge—the rapidly growing oil industry, for instance—and that is urged as a special reason why more members of the supreme court should come from the south.

The two judges whose terms end in 1910 are Judge M. C. Sloss and Henry Melvin. Sloss was appointed by Governor Pardee in February of 1906 to succeed Judge Van Dyke, deceased. Judge Melvin was a candidate before the people at the recent election, and ran 50,000 votes behind his ticket. In an ordinary year that would have defeated him. Personally Melvin is exceptionally popular, his ability is conceded, and there has never been a suspicion of his personal integrity. His only element of weakness, then, was nomination by a convention notoriously controlled by the railroad machine, and his known political affiliations with the "organization." If that fact cost him 50,000 votes in a Taft year, it will not be overlooked by those who figure on the possibilities of politics next time.

Southern California will make the claim that either Judge Sloss or Melvin shall step aside in the interest of a southern candidate.

Of the Southern California judges the names most frequently mentioned in connection with the supreme bench are those of Judge Curtis D. Wilbur and N. P. Conrey. Both were up for re-election to the superior court of Los Angeles county at the November election and each received a decidedly flattering vote of confidence. Both are clean, wholesome men, with trained minds, and are equipped in every way for judicial positions.

Judge W. P. James, also of the superior court in Los Angeles, was the Southern California candidate before the convention at the time Melvin was nominated, but withdrew in favor of Melvin when it became evident that the latter had the votes. He has a good personal reputation, but is accused of political affiliation with Walter Parker, the Southern Pacific boss.

Judge Wheaton A. Gray, formerly of Tulare but now of Los Angeles county, is also mentioned. Judge Gray was defeated for the nomination to the appellate bench at the famous Santa Cruz convention, in 1906, because he refused to deliver Tulare county. Judge Taggart of Santa Barbara county, got the nomination. His delegation was "good." Judge Gray's record was that of an able jurist. He had many friends in the convention that nominated Melvin who would have liked to vote for him, but he declined at that time to be a candidate.

Unquestionably one of the most formidable candidates that Southern California could possibly present would be William J. Hunsaker, whose name is also frequently mentioned. No member of the bar in the south has had wider experience or more active practice before the courts than Mr. Hunsaker, and he undoubtedly would add great weight to the supreme bench.—California Weekly.

TELL THE STORY

When the trial of Patrick Calhoun comes on, let us hope for at least a square defense, not a sneak and a wriggle. The law does not compel a defendant to take the stand, but all principles of gentlemanly honor do, and Patrick Calhoun prates much of honor. There are ways of wriggling out of jail, through the back-door key-hole, but they are not the ways of dignity and honor. Whoever uses them thereby announces that his sufficient aspiration is to keep out of jail. If that is Calhoun's ambition, there is no law to prevent him from seeking it. But if he aspires again to hold up his head among gentlemen, and to look honest men in the face, he must make his defense before the court of honor, by its rules, as well as before the court of law by its quibbles.

What the defense will be, if it is squarely made, nobody is authorized to say. But it has been whispered these two years that the money was paid to Ruef ostensibly as a "fee," but actually under the duress of moral extortion. That the money was not paid, no one has even suggested. That Calhoun had any doubt that he was buying Ruef is scarcely thinkable; but there was no law against bribing Ruef. That he was expressly informed that the money was to be divided among the supervisors is improbable. Such deals are not made that way. But that he understood what would be done admits of no intelligent doubt. The question is whether that understanding can be shown to constitute a legal crime. And the question of public honor will be whether Calhoun can show that he was submitting to what amounted in morals to extortion.

If Calhoun can get an acquittal by telling his story, that is his privilege. If he thinks he can gain any restoration of public honor by telling it, that is his risk. We will not forestall the probabilities of it. But the people have a right to expect of Calhoun, even if the law does not, that whatever his story is, he tell it like a man, and stand cross-examination on it.—The California Weekly.

DOINGS OF SOME CALIFORNIA TOWNS

In order to encourage the tree-planting movement, the supervisors of Imperial county have undertaken to supply shade trees, preferably eucalyptus, to every property owner who will agree to plant them along the line of a county road and protect and care for them. The supervisor of each district will use part of his road fund for the purchase of trees.

Porterville is receiving free mail delivery at an early date; and this improvement is only one of many illustrations of the fact that this leading town of the Tulare county orange belt is rapidly putting on real metropolitan airs.

The discovery of a diamond mine is reported near Lompoc in Santa Barbara county. Oroville also has a mine of this same precious stone, but it does not seem to be turning out any sparklers.

The people of Fresno feel so sure of getting a bill through the legislature to establish a state normal school at that point that they have already selected a site for the buildings.

REO LEADS 'EM ALL AGAIN

October Registrations—Reo Ahead by 43 per cent in Maine and California. According to the report of the New York Auto Directories Co.'s October registrations for the state of Maine, the Reo leads all other automobiles by 43 per cent.

The nearest registration to the Reos in Maine for October was the Buick which the Reo beat by 43 per cent. Reo beat Cadillac and Stanley by 100%, the White, Maxwell, Pope and Stevens-Durvae by 233%, the Franklin, Jackson and Oldsmobile by 1000%, and numerous others at the same clip.

Main is noted for sandy and mountainous roads requiring unusual power, durability and reliability in automobiles. No other argument is necessary to show why Reo leads in Maine by such big odds.

REO'S OCTOBER REGISTRATION IN CALIFORNIA are equally significant. The New York Auto Directories Co. reports 24 Reo registrations in the state. Reo leads Maxwell by 60%, Oldsmobile by 71%, Pope by 118%, Mitchell and Packard by 84%, Cadillac by 100%, Elmore, Rambler, White and Pope by 118%, the Franklin and Thomas by 800%, Jackson, Overland, Knox, Northern and Pullman by 1200%.

California motorists are everywhere said to be "on their jobs." They need cars that will pull through heavy sand and take them over rugged mountain roads and then bring them back.

The above fully answers the question so often asked: "Why are so many Reos sold in Santa Ana?"

Social and Personal

New Year's day was spent rather quietly in Santa Ana, after a strenuous Christmas and a gay week following it. Many went to Pasadena for the Rose Tournament, while the beautiful weather attracted a large number to the beaches.

The baseball and football games in the afternoon, with the Canton dance at night, were the public amusements and all were well patronized.

New Year's Eve saw many gay little parties gathered at various homes and the evening was a joyous one. The new year dawned fair and beautiful and the loveliness of the day in itself made a joy of living. That life may be as glad all through the year is the wish of the Register to its readers.

and taken to the Dragon for refreshments. When in due time they arrived at the parsonage every thing was dark and "quiet," but just as they opened the door the lights were suddenly turned on, and to their surprise and amazement, they saw a hundred or more of their friends filling the large parlors and dining room, who shouted, "A Happy New Year."

There were hand shakes all around, and then conversation and a good time followed. Mr. Le Van, Mr. Nelson and Mr. McFadden played "It." It became necessary to try one of the number for a misdemeanor. Clerk of Court A. H. Morrow issued a warrant for the arrest of one of the number present for violation of the curfew law, he having been found on the public highway after 8 p. m., unattended, with a chicken under his arm. Sheriff L. A. Galloway arrested the criminal, and he was brought before his Honor, C. C. Collins, for trial. Col. S. H. Finley was district attorney, and the prisoner was ably defended by Attorney R. R. Smith. Jurors Finley, Matthews, Smith, Ramsey, Le Van and Harper heard the evidence, and retired to render a verdict, the fact that they are still out would indicate a disageement.

Mr. R. R. Smith in a few well chosen words on behalf of the congregation presented Mr. and Mrs. Samson with a small jewel box each, containing an equal amount of gold. Refreshments were served and good nights were said at a very late hour.

Thus ended an affair that was happy alike to both pastor and people. Much credit is due the committee for the efficient way in which the matter was handled. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presence of Mr. Samson's parents.

A New Years Dinner

New Years day, at high noon, Mr. and Mrs. Winklepuck entertained at their beautiful ranch home at West Orange, with a chicken dinner and all the good things that go with it.

Music and conversation filled the afternoon with pleasure. Those present to enjoy the day were Mr. and Mrs. Urshie and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dowell and daughter, Lillian.

The Slayback Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Slayback entertained the families of J. O. Slayback from Smeitzer and Cyrus Magill of Garden Grove, with a generously served chicken and oyster dinner, yesterday, beginning the new year with a becoming hospitality.

Successful Canton Dance

The dance given by the Ladies' Canton last night at Spurgeon's Hall was a delightful affair, being well attended and enjoyed in an informal and pleasant way. Langley's orchestra of six pieces furnished very good music and the program was judiciously arranged. The ladies feel highly pleased with the success of the affair.

Swastika Class

The Swastika Class of the First Presbyterian Sunday school, accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. A. J. Lawton, was very pleasantly entertained at Mrs. G. T. Miller's, 602 East Fifth street, by the secretary, Gertie Decker, on last Thursday evening from 8:30 to 11, after which Mrs. Lawton chaperoned the girls to the Electric Theater to watch out the ending of 1908 and the beginning of 1909.

Occidental Glee Club Monday

One of the finest of musical treats for Santa Ana will be given next Monday evening at Spurgeon's Hall under the auspices of the local High School. The Mens' Glee Club from Occidental College is one of the finest organizations of its kind on the coast. The club consists of twelve singers and is under the leadership of Leroy Jepson, an excellent tenor soloist. Mr. McKenny is the bass soloist of the company and possesses a rare voice. They will be accompanied on their tour by Mr. George Braden, an expert Indian club gymnast, who will perform Monday evening. No one should fail to attend this entertainment.

Severe colds have been prevailing lately. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lusk and Mr. Frank Harris are among those who have been suffering. Miss Margaret Bowen, who has been ill with lumbago, is much improved.

Mrs. H. H. Fridline, is visiting Mrs. Cronenberger and family. They were old friends in Ohio, where Mr. Cronenberger ministered for many years. Rev. Charles H. Seccombe and family spent yesterday at Newport Beach.

The Garnett Reception

The New Year was happily observed last night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Carnett, on Washington avenue, by a reception lasting from 7:30 to 10:30. Scores of people welcomed the opportunity of wishing a happy New Year to this popular pastor and his family. Mesdames A. L. Cole, W. W. Crosier, O. S. Catland and Frank Harris assisted in receiving the numerous guests.

Christmas bells, smiles, and the ever beautiful Christmas holly were used effectively in the house decorations. The dining room was especially cheery, long strings of smiles swaying from the center chandelier to the corners of the table where hot coffee and cake were served by the assisting ladies, who alternated in presiding at the coffee urn.

Mrs. Mit Phillips entertained the company with the singing of "Sevilla," and Mrs. Frank Harris sang "The Songs My Mother Sang." Piano numbers were given by Miss Lowell Garnett and Miss Kasa Bailey, and Miss Bailey accompanied Miss Gem Barger, who played a violin solo.

Mrs. and Miss Schlicher are visiting for a few days in Santa Ana enjoying a reunion with old friends. They are at present with Mrs. and Miss Cubbison. Miss Schlicher was formerly a teacher in Central public school.

Mr. and Mrs. John King, who spent last winter in Santa Ana, but who were on the Atlantic coast during the summer, returned yesterday to enjoy the incomparable winter season of Southern California. They will be located at the Frank Trues on North Main.

The Swastika Club

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Whitson were host and hostess at a "watch party" on New Year's Eve, with the Swastika Club as their guests.

They passed the evening in cards, prizes of 1909 calendars being given to those having the lowest score, who were Mrs. Pease and Mr. Crawford. Nuts and raisins were served during the evening, and after the games coffee and cake were served at the table, pretty hand painted cards designating places.

Messrs. and Mesdames R. E. Dickinson, Harry Spencer, Elmer Crawford, Oscar Aldrich, Arthur Pease were the guests, and after the repast they, with Mr. and Mrs. Whitson, went to the Electric Theater for the end-of-the-year moving picture show.

The Travellers

The spacious H. R. Bristol home was the rendezvous of the Travellers Club ladies and their husbands on Thursday, the last night of the old year.

At 7 o'clock a bountiful turkey dinner with "trimmings" with announcer, and with gaiety and mirth, the feast was enjoyed by the forty guests present.

After dinner a handsome Christmas tree, gaily decorated and loaded with presents, was the principal attraction for a jolly half hour, while toys and other facetious gifts for the "grown-ups" were distributed. The pleasant evening was enjoyed to the full, as all the Travellers' social times are and many stayed until the witching hour when 1908 stole away and the new regime of 1909 commenced, so that they might wish each other a "happy year" before good nights were said.

HIS FIRST SERMON
WITH NEW CHARGE

Pastor of the Congregational Church is a Man Who Has Won Recognition

Tomorrow morning Rev. C. H. Seccombe will preach his first sermon to his new charge, the First Congregational church of Santa Ana. Rev. Seccombe and his family, which consists of himself, his wife and two children, Dorothy, aged 14, and Frederick, aged 10, are today unpacking boxes and making the parsonage at 719 H street homelike and comfortable.

Rev. Seccombe is a minister of exceptional ability and is earnest in his work. For the last two years he has been in California, having charge of the Congregational church at Ontario. Previous to that time for three years he was pastor of his church at Waterloo, Iowa, and for a year had charge of the Chautauqua and Bible Institute work there.

In Iowa Rev. Seccombe was recognized as one of the leading ministers of the state, and in his two years in California he has established himself as one of the ablest men of his church. The Congregational church here is much pleased that it succeeded in securing the services of Rev. Seccombe, several flattering offers having been made the minister elsewhere, particularly by the educational department of the church.

Morse extinguished the fire on his machine with his gloves. Dirt was thrown on the flames beneath the other automobile and the fire put out. The name of the man who struck the match is not known here.

PROF. SEE OF MARE ISLAND EXPLAINS QUAKE AND WAVE

VALLEJO, Jan. 2.—Prof. T. J. See, the director of the naval observatory at Mare Island, today explained the cause of the earthquake. He said it was caused by the leakage of the ocean gradually forming steam beneath the crust where the molten rock swells until it requires more space, and a readjustment takes place.

He said: "The seismic sea wave in Italy shows that so much lava was expelled from beneath the sea that the bottom was undermined and caved down during the earthquake. Then the sea retired to fill up the depression and left the shore bare. When the sea retired to fill up the depression they were raised above normal height and sent the tidal wave ashore."

"This theory is the outcome of two years of exacting research following the great local earthquake. It is generally accepted by leading investigators throughout the world."

Pure Food and Pure Drug Men Are Making the Rounds in Santa Ana

Frank Oakley, state pure food inspector, and Fred O. McKinnic, state drug inspector, both from Los Angeles and of the Southern California division, are in Santa Ana today making the rounds of stores. Their purpose is to aid business men in securing a better understanding of the state pure food and pure drug acts. This morning they had a conference with District Attorney Davis.

The method of procedure where prosecutions are brought is to take a sample of the suspected article. This is sent to the state chemist and analyzed. If it proves to be a "bogus" article, the storekeeper may go before the state board of health to refute the analysis. Should he not be successful there, the matter is referred to the district attorney for action.

Recently District Attorney Davis sent circulars over the county detailing the law and notifying all parties that it would be enforced.

LAY IT ALL UP TO A PIECE OF CHALK

A piece of chalk played a trick on a bride and groom at the court house this morning. While Harvey Williams and Fanny J. Newland were being made man and wife by Justice of the Peace Smithwick there appeared on the groom's suit case the words: "Bride and groom, just wed. Jan. 2, 1909." Oblivious to all save each other the bride and groom walked from the court house toward the car, the suit case being carried sign out.
